

20 to 30% additional revenue

Less internal resources required

More time for other things

The above font in this colour

REVIEW

We continually review the market and our solutions to ensure we deliver the best results for your business.

Change review to optimise

Dan Carlyon

Founder

Remove this place holder

Daniel Johnson

Founding Member

Zoom this picture out because it cuts off half of my head and change the title to founder

Dan Carlyon

Founder

Dan has 25 years in sales and business management, he brings his skills and expertise to assist with high-level growth to a broad range of businesses. Since he has started his professional journey, he has continued to refine his skill set through various roles in his career. He has invested in numerous coaching programmes and live training sessions from Tony Robbins, Jack Delosa and Grant Cardone throughout his career. Deriving from his early years as a Triathlete Dan's number one motto is what he likes to call "Clocking the K's" meaning, taking small steps, improving one day at a time, leading to achieving substantial results over time.

Remove this as it is a placeholder use the about for the D[aniel Johnson part

Daniel Johnson

Managing Director

Dan has 25 years of experience in sales, he has a deep understanding of this space. From the ago of 20 he was appointed the role of General manager for one of Australia's most prestige car yards. Now he manages a team of leading sales executives. Dan brings his knowledge and high levels of expertise into every opportunity he is faced, with a vision of driving sales and bringing success to your business.

Dan has 25 years of experience in sales, he has a deep understanding of this space. From the ago of 20 he was appointed the role of General manager for one of Australia's most prestige car yards. Now he manages a team of leading sales executives.

Change the title from Managing Director to Founder and use the blurb from the Daniel Carlyon section